The purpose of Zeta Phi Beta Sorority is to foster the ideals of service, scholarship, sisterly love and finer womanhood. These ideals are reflected in the sorority's national programs for which its members and auxiliary groups provide voluntary service.

Founded January 16, 1920, Zeta Phi Beta Sorority began as an idea conceived by five students at Howard University in Washington D.C.: The current Zeta Phi Beta Leadership includes the 23rd International President, Sheryl P. Underwood, 18th South Central regional Director, Dr. Constance Hendricks and the Alabama State director, Vivian Marvray.

Zeta's national and local programs include endowment of its National Educational Foundation, community outreach services and support of multiple affiliate organizations. The Sorority's more than 125,000 initiated members and affiliates have given millions of hours of voluntary service to educate the public, assist youth, provide scholarships, support organized charities and promote legislation for social and civic change. Zeta Phi Beta is a nonprofit organization. ■
